Fun but hard to beat. Hey! This game is excellent!

An even playfield card game is pretty rare nowadays, and this has very excellent gameplay. I can see myself sinking many hours into Pick A Hero

The dev is also on the ball fixing bugs and releasing patches

Highly recommend. Cant beat the price for the value of gameplay. If you like hearthstone at all, you will like this game. Very neat graphics and smooth movement perception, it's a great short game even without VR gear.

I could even buy a longer version of this game which is relaxing and challenging at the same time.

The colorful depiction of the interior of the cell and it's organelles is spectacular and looks like a Biology textbook in motion.

I loved this game.. Just buy Bejeweled 3 or one of the 7 Wonders games instead.

The most interesting thing this game has going for it is you have alternate modes of play (in which you are still matching gems), except they're all highly gimmicky. Control the gravity of the board so things fall in another direction until you run out of gems! Move them around like tiny army men and new pieces fall onto the board at random if you don't make a match! The problem is they don't have any real draw. There's a no-good scoreboard, nobody you know is playing this for competition, and the game itself is underwhelming aside from the fact that I'm 99% sure one of the announcer lines is "SPACESHIT!" in the middle of large combos.

I got this for a dollar and I'm still writing it off, and match-3 games are my CRACK. Don't waste a dollar like I did, there's probably some costume DLC you want that'll be better spent.. Amazing Game! Some of the new features are really cool, but are a little difficult to use. Such as Animal husbandry, Taking care of the animals is easy and fun but placing the pens is a little difficult. As usual though this game is hours of fun and sucks you right in. Highly recommend this game.

Awsome lots of hours fun also lots of big boss fish. level 1 begin game over

10/10 would loose my sanity again. fun asteroids good music,
I like the console gimmick.
Node picking is a bit annoying.. The flying has such a great feel to it. You can expertly move yourself around the crazy shapes, or quickly fly through the maze darting around corners - the controls and responsiveness just feels right

Has a trippy, meditative vibe.

At $5 this is a steal, I consider this a must buy for VR.

Some possible improvements:

- music choices

- option to fly even faster

. Awesome game! This game has a whole new kind of combat and the sound desing in the game is just beautiful. I rckommend to everyone. Better than Gta V.... This is not a typical horror game, it's more of a creepy haunted house simulator. And it's very interesting.

A lot of bad horror games have come out recently and this is a step in the right direction. It's not perfect, but it's got its own vibe, and it works well.

and it's 6 bucks.

So ask yourself: Do I like the idea of a house that does what it pleases? Would I find it fascinating to roam around a building where the tension is based more on shifting geometry rather than lurking monsters? Am I tired of paying money for a "horror" "game" that is 'predictable' and 'broken'?

If you want a new freak out experience please check out Monstrum, it's fantastic. If you have a few bucks and want a weird little head trip that's fine being its own thing, pick this up and support a talented developer.

And, PS, a note to the developer. I would be happy to send you a few corrections grammar-wise to the notes lying around. I love your game and I think the slightly broken english is the one thing that needs a fix pronto.. Returned for rigid, boring, strictly lineary scripted. I wanted it to be better but 1,25€ is too much for this generic repetition simulator themed in halo universe.

I guess I expected Halo franchise to throw more time and money to QA.

"CEO want another Halo game out in 4 months, with this budget. Do it!". The SteamPlay icon says this game runs on Macs. It lies. Okay, technically it does run on old Macs; the system requirements list "OS:OS X version 10.5.8". That doesn't mean "or newer", that's just that release. So if you're still rockin' Leopard it's a good game and probably one of the few that will run on a system of that vintage. Or it's great if you have a PC, which is where all my play has happened. Newer Macs, don't waste your money. Thumbs up for the game itself, thumbs down for the misleading labeling of supported systems.
